COMMENTS:

I've been in Missouri since 1999. Still love it! People here don't understand why I'd want to leave the Northwest. The Midwest is very beautiful. Very spread out and "open". I live in a small town out in the country. (alot of those out here) But not too far from anything. Long story how I got here.....funny how fate steps in. Married in July of 2002 but decided to not have any kids. Spend my time working in the gardens, doing volunteer enviromental work and anything else that sounds fun. I'm really interested in the metaphysical area as well. Life is good. :D

Looking back, I realize how much fun I really had, and who my true friends were. Friendships are an important part of life, and something to cherish. When you lose a close friend, you understand how fragile life is. You learn to seize the day, and thank God for the many blessings in your life.

FAVORITE TEACHER(S) AT PRAIRIE: Who was that hot blond lady that taught Home Ec.?? Can't think of any of the teachers names though right now. I'm getting old ya know! ;o)~ laughin I mean, I didn't get 'Librarian's Worst Nightmare' of 1990 for nothin'!

ACTIVITIES AT PRAIRIE: Ohhh, did the football, baseball, golf, and ski racing (through a Mt. Hood program). But my favorite 'letters' received were from Drama and DECA. Showed I was just a meat head.... ;o). Well, not too meaty!

COMMENTS:

I've been down here in Sacramento now since 98 and LOVE it. It's actually a lot like Vancouver how it's fairly spread out and is mostly a farming community. People are cool too unlike So. Cal. You're pretty much 90 minutes to two hours from everything (San Francisco, Napa, Santa Cruz, Tahoe, Reno, Yosemite, Shasta Lake, and of course like 20 ski resorts including Squaw, Kirkwood, Heavenly, Sugar Bowl, etc...)! I've been lucky to get into buying a couple homes a while back down here before the market went nuts, so some of my time goes to upkeep of the rentals. Play a lot of competitive softball in the Spring through Fall months and have actually traveled quite a bit with that (Iowa, Illinois, Maui, Kauai, Tahiti, Oahu, etc.....). Lot of my winter still is set up around skiing/boarding though and I still have 'Prairie' friends come down to ski (Eric Dube, Dave Ortner, Nicole Dube, etc.....). So that's the mini scoop!

COMMENTS:

Ya never realize how much fun you had or how many friends or how many friends you really care about until you're out of school... I treasure my friendships and the hardest thing is losing the life of a dear friend... but overall, it's weird to know that we all grew up... just like our parents did, and now, some of us are parents, scary huh? hahaha =)

I've changed a lot since my high school days. I've been stationed at Ft. Lewis, WA, Kitzingen, Germany, and now at Ft. Campbell, KY. I met my wife at Ft. Sam Houston, TX in 1991 and were married in 1992. We have a handsome, athletic, highly intelligent 7 year old son named Tyler. I have worked as a medical laboratory technician, EMT, ER tech, supply sergeant, and also volunteer as a firefighter. Would love to hear from anyone and everyone. Since joining the Army I have a different outlook on life. I weighed 155 lbs. in high school but now weigh 206 thanks to the wonderful world of physical training. Hope to leave the Army on 02 APR 01 and have applied for jobs as a firefighter and a police officer.

Life is good. :) Married my hubby, Rob, last January who I met while living in New York for 2 years. I somehow convinced him to move out west with me, where we just bought a home in Beaverton. I'm working for Nike these days and loving it! See you at the reunion...

I met a wonderful woman named Senda, she is as beautiful and unique as her name, and married her in 2005. The two of us moved from Laramie, WY to downtown Denver. The two of us just bought a house in the burbs of Denver and now expecting our first child. Adulthood sneaks up on us and is very scary and fun. I would love to hear from any or all of you. Sorry I could not make it to the reunion last summer that is when we had just bought the house.

MOST MEMORABLE MOMENT(S) AT PRAIRIE: Leaving classes early to work on my animation project in Mr. Nieland's room. I remember staying after school until 1:00 am or later working on it. Looking back, I can't believe how crappy it was for all the time I put into it, but I guess technology has changed a bit since 97-98.

I also remember getting into an argument with Will Spjut in AP History about what role in the entertainment industry was more critical to the success of the project. I argued that the role of the director was a more crucial element, whereas Will argued that the producer was more essential. Seems like a pointless and immature debate now, but for some reason that moment stuck with me. It's probably because I was so passionate about becoming a director at the time. I'm not a director yet, but I'm still actively pursuing that dream.

Have several other memories as well but it all seems like it was in some distant past.

COMMENTS:

I can't believe that the 10 year reunion is coming up soon... WOW. After I graduated I began working as an intern at Z100, then was hired to work on-air for 3 years. Then I was hired at Jammin 95.5 to do late-nights (Slow Jams and Dedications) then moved to do Middy's (10 a.m.-3 p.m.) During this time I also was crowned Miss Oregon Plus America 2005-2006 and won the national pageant and had the title of Miss Plus America 2005-2006. (It is like Miss America but for big girls) I now work at Z100 doing Middy's and the Music Director of the station. I also am currently in the final stages of getting my Cosmetology licence. Plus, I'm getting engaged to an awesome guy named Amaury (A-Maui) Sarmiento that I met at a friends birthday BBQ two years ago. We will be tying the knot in the Summer of 2009. Drop me a note to say HI!
